Awesome Trophies for first place finishers. Prizes for all entries.

PSDSA members receive a $5 discount on each entry! See <http://psdsa.org> for membership info-you can mail membership application & dues with your entry, but please include separate checks to avoid confusion.

USFS Rules: All vehicles in the sno-parks must display in the windshield a 2018 OR, ID or CA sno-park permit. Any straw not contained must be “Certified Weed-Free”.

Race Notes: Mandatory drivers’ meeting for all racers will be at the Wanoga Sno-Park in the warming shelter on each day one hour before race start. ■ Sled and ski teams will be segregated on each course. ■ Race Rules and race updates are posted to the website: <http://psdsa.org>. ■ Helmets are suggested for all participants and strongly recommended for juniors.

Friday – Schedule of events: Friday’s Stage will be in run in the evening.

3:00 PM Drivers’ Meeting | 4:00 PM Stage Start

4:30-6:00 PM An informal gathering, packet pickup available at Wanoga Sno-Park warming shelter. Complimentary beer and pretzels will be available.

Sat/Sun – Schedule of events: If the weather and trail conditions warrant it, all classes will be started consecutively – all teams may be on trail at the same time. ■ Water and prep your dogs for racing before the Drivers’ Meeting.

7:30 AM	Drivers’ Meeting	8:30 AM	Stage 9-Mile Sled/Ski 15-Mile Mid 5-Mile Sled/Ski	After Teams Return	1.5-Mile Sled/Ski
----------------	------------------	----------------	--	---------------------------	-------------------

Saturday Event: An informal musher potluck held in the parking lot after the sprint races are completed. Bring whatever food you’d like to share, and something to grill. A chair, some music, whatever you can contribute to set the mood for the very casual “last snow race of the season” afternoon affair.

Sunday Event: A hot lunch hosted by the local snowmobile club, Moon Country Snowbusters, will be offered in the warming hut at the Wanoga Sno-Park immediately following the end of the sprint races. ■ Cash donations accepted for lunch. ■ Awards ceremony will follow lunch, at approximately 12:00 PM
