Awesome Trophies for top three finishers. Prizes for all entries.

USFS Rules: All vehicles in the sno-parks must display in the windshield a 2023-24 OR, ID or CA sno-park permit. Any straw not contained must be “Certified Weed-Free”.

Race Notes: Mandatory drivers’ meeting for all racers will be at the Wanoga Sno-Park at the warming shelter on each day one hour before race start. ■ Sled and ski teams will be segregated on each course. ■ Race Rules and race updates are posted to the website: <http://psdsa.org>. ■ Helmets are suggested for all participants and strongly recommended for juniors. ■ Metal-edge skis prohibited in skijoring events.

COVID Notes: Masks should be worn when social distancing is not possible.

SHCA Notes: BBDD is proud to support the Siberian Husky Club of America Inc. (SHCA) recognition of purebred teams by awarding ribbons to the top 3 Siberian husky teams in the 15-mile Mid and 5-mile Sprint classes. ■ Awards are provided by the SHCA to promote the continued workability of the Siberian Husky. ■ ALL dogs on the team must be purebred.

Friday – Schedule of events: Friday’s Open will be in run in the evening.

3:00 PM Drivers’ Meeting | 4:00 PM Open Start

4:30-6:00 PM An informal gathering, packet pickup available at Wanoga Sno-Park for non-Open racers. ■ Come early and help get the Open racers on the trail. ■ Stay for social gathering.

Sat/Sun – Schedule of events: If the weather and trail conditions warrant it, all classes will be started consecutively – all teams may be on trail at the same time. ■ Water and prep your dogs for racing before the Drivers' Meeting.

7:30 AM	Drivers’ Meeting	8:30 AM	Open 15-Mile Mid 9-Mile Sled 5-Mile Sled/Ski	After Teams Return	1.5-Mile Sled/Ski
----------------	------------------	----------------	---	---------------------------	-------------------

Saturday Event: An informal potluck held in the parking lot after the sprint races are completed. ■ Bring whatever food you would like to share, and something to grill. ■ A chair, some music, whatever you can contribute to set the mood for the very casual “last snow race of the season” afternoon affair.

Sunday Event: A hot lunch hosted by the local snowmobile club, Moon Country Snowbusters, will be at 12:00 PM. ■ Cash donations accepted for lunch. ■ Awards ceremony will follow lunch, at approximately 1:00 PM
